

Curriculum Vitae

Timothy P Henry

University of California
Department of Linguistics
3607 South Hall
Santa Barbara, CA 93106-3100, USA

Tel. No.: +1 951.543.7299
E-mail: t_henry@umail.ucsb.edu
Web site: www.timhenry.org

Education

- 2009-Present Doctoral Candidate in Linguistics, University of California, Santa Barbara
Additional emphasis: Applied linguistics
- Dissertation: “A Pedagogical Grammar of Mitsqanaqa’n (Ventureño) Chumash: Implementing Grammatical Theory in Grammar Writing”
Expected date of completion: Fall 2011
Chair: Marianne Mithun, Ph.D.
- 2009 C.Phil., Linguistics: Department of Linguistics, University of California, Santa Barbara
- 2008 M.A., Linguistics: Department of Linguistics, University of California, Santa Barbara
- Master’s Thesis: “From inalienable to indefinite in Mitsqanaqa’n (Ventureño) Chumash”
- 2005 B.A., Linguistics, Summa Cum Laude: Department of English, Comparative Literature, and Linguistics, California State University, Fullerton

Professional Background

As instructor, University of California, Santa Barbara

2010 Story of English (spring)

As teaching assistant, University of California, Santa Barbara

2010 Introductory Linguistics (winter)

2009 Phonetics (fall)
Historical Linguistics (spring)
Language and Society (winter)

2008 Historical Linguistics (spring)

2007 Story of English (fall)
Introductory Linguistics (summer)
Language and Power (winter)

Publications

Refereed Journals

(submitted) “The reality of advanced tongue root contrasts in Mongolian vowels”

Proceedings

“Dictionary making: Forcing the hand,” in Proceedings of the 6th Annual Conference on Endangered Languages and Cultures of Native America, eds. K. Matsumoto-Gray, N. A. Walker, Salt Lake, UT: Center for American Indian Languages (CAIL).

Publication Contributions

Refereed Journals

Saint-Onge Sr., Rex W., John Johnson and Joseph R. Talaugon. 2009.

Archaeoastronomical implications of a Northern Chumash arborglyph. Journal of California and Great Basin Anthropology, 29.1, 29-57.

Presentations and Guest Lectures

2011 ‘A Perfect Find: Semantic Reconstruction in Mitsqanaqañ (Ventureño) Chumash,’ presented at the University of California, Santa Barbara May 19

2010 ‘Dictionary making: Forcing the hand,’ presented at the 6th Annual Conference on Endangered Languages and Cultures of Native America, April 9-11

2009a ‘Areal linguistics and pidgins and creoles,’ guest lecture given to a course in historical linguistics, University of California, Santa Barbara May 26

b ‘From inalienable to indefinite in Mitsqanaqa’n (Ventureño) Chumash,’ presented at the Society for the Study of Indigenous Languages of America (SSILA) in conjunction with the Linguistics Society of America (LSA) Annual Meeting, January

2007a ‘Teaching articles in Mitsqanaqa’n (Ventureño) Chumash,’ presented at the 4th Annual Conference on Endangered Languages and Cultures of Native America, March

b ‘Negation in Xalxa Mongolian,’ presented at the 16th Annual Linguistics Symposium, California State University, Fullerton, April

2006 ‘Writing systems,’ guest lecture given to at an introductory course in linguistics, University of California, Santa Barbara, August

2005 ‘The effectiveness of language preservation in Gaelic languages,’ presented at the 14th Annual Linguistics Symposium, California State University, Fullerton, April

Service to American Indigenous Communities

2011 Chumash language Consultant at Breath of Life, Washington DC, June 10-22

2011 Mentor to Chumash community at Breath of Life Archival Institute for Indigenous Languages, June 13-24

- 2010 Field supervisor for an independent project in Chumash linguistics by Matthew Vestuto (Ventureño Chumash descendant).
- 2008 ‘Learning Ventureño Chumash: Making simple sentences,’ presented at the Oakbrook Regional Park Chumash Interpretive Center, February 22
- 2007 ‘Learning Ventureño Chumash: Animals,’ presented at the Oakbrook Regional Park Chumash Interpretive Center, September 29
 ‘Learning Ventureño Chumash: The body,’ presented at the Oakbrook Regional Park Chumash Interpretive Center, June 30
 ‘Learning Ventureño Chumash: Making verbs and nouns,’ presented at the Oakbrook Regional Park Chumash Interpretive Center, May 11
 ‘Learning Ventureño Chumash: Sounds,’ presented at the Oakbrook Regional Park Chumash Interpretive Center, May 8

Academic Service

- 2010-2011 Native American Indian Languages academic group, treasurer
 Workshop on American Indian Languages, registrar
- 2009-2010 Native American Indian Languages academic group, president
 Workshop on American Indian Languages, Program committee
- 2008-2009 Native American Indian Languages academic group, treasurer
 Workshop on American Indian Languages, treasurer
- 2007-2008 Workshop on American Indian Languages, Program committee
- 2006-2007 Workshop on American Indian Languages, Program committee

Funding, Awards, Grants

- 2011 Graduate Division Dissertation Fellowship: University of California, Fall
- 2010-2011 Graduate Opportunity Fellowship: University of California, Santa Barbara
- 2007 Heritage language teaching grant: Chumash Barbareño/Ventureño Band of Mission Indians
- 2005-2010 University of California Fellow: University of California, Santa Barbara

Languages

Reading: French, Italian, and Spanish

Structural Knowledge: Chumash languages, Xalxa Mongolian, Germanic languages, Latinate languages

Studying: Ventureño Chumash, Xalxa Mongolian (continuing), Old English, Middle English, English dialects, French, German, Italian, Latin, Spanish (Californian and Mexican)

Professional Affiliations

Linguistics Society of America

Society for the Study of the Indigenous Languages of the Americas

Modern Language Association

Chumash Barbareño/Ventureño Band of Mission Indians

Last updated 03/23/2010